

Please refrain from altering the media ownership rules on June 2.
Consolidated media ownership threatens local programming/publishing, expression of diversity of opinion, and creativity and innovation through our media outlets.